

Educational Pirate Battleship

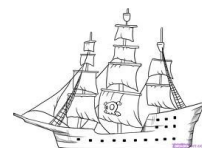

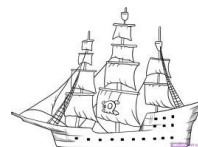

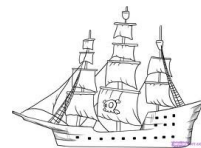

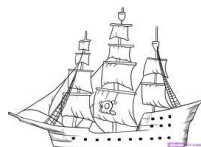

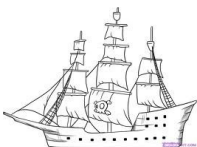

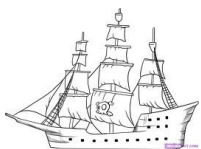

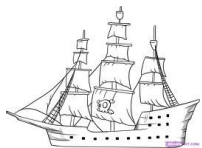

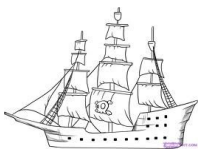

Educational pirate battleship can be used in any subject area by any school aged child.

The game must be played with at least two players, but can also be played by a team.

Basic Game Rules:

Shots fired must be drawn using a straight line from the teams ship, so curvy or angled lines from the ship. The canon ball can be no larger than the erase on the end of a pencil. Each ship must be hit three different times at three different locations of the ship in order to sink it. Hits should have an X place through them. Be good sports and have fun!
