2A Sheet 4 of 5

The image shows a technical drawing on a grid. A gray shaded polygon is defined by a thick black outline. The polygon starts at the left edge of the grid, goes up to the top edge, then down to a point on the right edge, and finally back to the left edge. A thick black line runs from the top-right vertex of the polygon down to the bottom edge of the grid. The text 'Dragon Pattern' and '3A Sheet 4 of 5' is centered within the shaded area.

A technical drawing of a dragon's head, shown in profile facing right. The drawing is a pattern for a quilt or textile, featuring a thick black outline and a light gray shaded area. The dragon has a large, curved horn on its forehead, a wide, open mouth with a pointed tongue, and a small, pointed ear. The background is white with a grid of dashed lines. The text "Dragon Pattern 1B Sheet 4 of 5" is centered in the white area. A small arrow points to a specific detail on the right side of the dragon's head.
