

Harry Jackson
Ms. Smith
10th Grade Language Arts
03/11/2018

Text: The Stranger by Albert Camus

Thesis:

In The Stranger, Albert Camus reveals the absurdity of life. This is explored through the author's use of characterization, setting and imagery. Camus demonstrates how individuals have difficulty accepting that life has no rational meaning. This is connected to Camus life as after the horrors of World War II, many authors did not believe that human existence had any higher purpose.