

After opening the .cmd in Excel the window on the left will open. To use this data press the option at the red arrow. After this press the option in the red circle (Next).

The next step is selecting at which symbol the data will get separated. Select the option at the red arrow and press "Next" (Red circle).

The last step is selecting the decimal symbol. Press Advanced (Red arrow), now make sure the decimal symbol is . (dot). Press OK and then press finish.