I would LOVE to see photos of your tealights, please post them on my Facebook Wall.

Remember, your support will help me to make and give you access to new and unique projects for your craft cutter each month.

As an Autistic, I find it really difficult to promote my work – my brain is made for design, not marketing. Even if you're unable to subscribe, you can help me a lot by sharing my Patreon page, videos and profiles.
