

Happy
Halloween!

Then all of the tiny creatures took their places.

A Little Halloween Story

It was Halloween day.
One little pumpkin
was left, all alone, in the pumpkin patch.

Along came a spider.
The spider took a look at the pumpkin. The spider smiled a BIG smile and scurried off.

Soon the spider
returned, with a friend!

The spiders got on their cell phones and invited their good friend, Moth.

Moth said, "Two little caterpillars will be joining us soon. I was invited them as I was flying to join you."
